Agreement and Acknowledgement

In consideration of your issuing at our request the above Credit, we acknowledge and agree that the credit shall be governed by and subject to the IncoTerms and Conditions in addition to the terms (which include an indemnity) below;

In consideration of DCB opening and issuing the credit specified overleaf, the applicant named in this Application Form agrees and undertakes to:

- Reimburse DCB for all amounts paid or incurred by DCB in connection with the credit in accordance with the Trade Terms and
- Indemnify and keep DCB indemnified from and against all liabilities, losses, damages, costs, expenses, claims and demands which DCB may incur or sustain in connection with the credit.

DCB is to have a lien on all goods, documents and policies and proceeds thereof for any obligations or liabilities present or future incurred by DCB under or arising out of the credit. DCB is to be bound only to see that the drafts and document purport to comply with the terms and conditions of the credit and is not to be liable for any loss or damage however caused in connection therewith (including, without limitation, loss or damage from delay or error in transmission or forwarding of the above or any future instruction or documents) not caused by the gross negligence or wilful default of DCB Bank's own officers or servants.

DCB is authorised to debit the account of the applicant with sums paid under the credit, also with commission charges and any other charge which may be incurred in respect thereof. DCB is authorised to be reimbursed for any loss incurred by DCB due to variations or adjustments arising from the making of payments under the credit in a foreign currency by debiting such amounts from the applicant's account or accounts with any of DCB Bank's branches. If the applicant does not hold any account with DCB Bank, the applicant authorises DCB to open a new account in its name at any of DCB Bank's branches and for DCB to debit any such loss incurred from this account. The applicant agrees that DCB shall be entitled to refuse payment of any cheque, bill note or order drawn or accepted by the applicant or upon which the applicant may otherwise be liable, if such payments would result in the credit balance of the applicant's account being less than the amounts from time to time owing or due to DCB by the applicant. In the event of a receiver and/or liquidator being appointed to the applicant or if DCB determines that a material adverse change has occurred to the applicant's business assets or future prospects, DCB shall be entitled to immediately debit from any of the applicant's accounts, the maximum total amount of DCB Bank's actual and contingent liability under the credit (notwithstanding that no actual payment has been made by DCB Bank) and DCB shall refund to the applicant any excess promptly after the contingent liability has ceased to exist.

Unless specifically requested otherwise above, DCB is not obliged to include any documents which it may have attached to this application, as an integral part of the credit neither is DCB bound to examine documents presented under the credit against such attachments. The applicant agrees that DCB is authorised to pay sums under the credit on first presentation of documents purported to comply with the terms and conditions of the credit and is not required to investigate the validity of any such demand for payment. The applicant agrees that its liability hereunder shall also apply to any increase or decrease in the amount to be paid under the credit or any extension or renewal of the credit, whether pursuant to the same terms or otherwise and whether arising by agreement with DCB or by operation of law or otherwise. The credit is subject to the I.C.C. Paris. Uniform Customs and Practice for Documentary Credits in force on the date of issue.
